NEW YEAR NEW KNOWLEDGE NEW NETWORK

We are delighted to confirm the return of our two residential courses in 2024 hosted at – The University of Greenwich, London, England.

Situated in the centre of the historic town of Greenwich, the venue provides excellent facilities to delegates including a Welcome Reception, accommodation, use of gym, student union and a gala dinner at the Worshipful Company of Tallow Chandlers Hall with easy access to the heart of London.

Greenwich Campus is situated on a UNESCO World Heritage Site on the banks of the River Thames in south-east London.

Lectures will take place on campus at the Old Royal Naval College (pictured) which has a lively atmosphere and is surrounded by historical landmarks with the centre of London just a short distance upriver.

INTRODUCTORY COURSE

1 - 6 September

Ideal for members of the trade with minimal knowledge and experience in a trading environment i.e., less than three years.

This course covers the key elementary aspects that are fundamental to acquiring and developing the knowledge needed for the international trading of oilseeds, oils and fats. From the initial formation of a contract including conditions and warranties, loading and discharging, laytime and documentation through to payment, relief clauses, default, damages, dispute resolution, shipping and finance, this course will provide an excellent foundation that will equip delegates with knowledge, understanding and renewed confidence.

Includes the popular “Mock Appeal” in which delegates form a Tribunal to consider and judge a real arbitration case.

INTRODUCTORY COURSE Delegate Fee:

- Members £1,255*
- Non-members £1,650*

*VAT is charged to UK companies only

ADVANCED COURSE

1 - 6 September

Ideal for members of the trade with wide knowledge and experience in a trading environment i.e., more than three years.

This course is designed to update and enhance delegates on the latest FOSFA contracts and current trade practices. It also introduces several management subjects including dispute and risk management and dispute avoidance. It provides a detailed understanding of compliance for the carriage of oils and fats from the perspective of a superintendent, a fascinating module on maritime fraud/piracy and detailed coverage of FOSFA arbitration including a group Case Study.

ADVANCED COURSE Delegate Fee:

- Members £1,255*
- Non-members £1,650*

*VAT is charged to UK companies only

To register your interest in attending either course please send an email to fosfa.education@fosfa.org stating which course you are interested in.
